Zodiac Milpro SRMN 550

Description

Zodiac Milpro SRMN boats were originally built for Military use so their hulls are reinforced to take the maximum G forces that are applied when fully laden and powered at maximum speed. These Sea Ribs are simple, functional and tough. The collar is a heavy-duty neoprene hypalon with Zodiac Milpro's special intercommunicating valves. The total deck area is open and reinforced allowing installation anywhere of our wide range of steering consoles, bolsters and other equipment.
